1.7.6 (b) Scores achieved in all Qualifying events as specified in 1.5.2 above may count.

1.7.6 (c) The Heaslip Ladies Challenge Trophy winner will be the female competitor having the most points in the specified number of qualifying events as per 1.6.3(d) above.

An additional point will be awarded for the completion of at least 1 timed run which counts towards the events final results. No point will be awarded if the competitor does not complete a timed run, or indeed records only fails in her timed runs

1.7.6 (e) All points will be awarded based on the calculated times, as listed in the event final results, as produced by the event Timekeepers. Corrected times will be calculated by the Event Timekeepers on the day and will be displayed in the event final results as a separate Heaslip Ladies Challenge Trophy sub-section. The calculation of this system is included below at 1.7.7(h)

1.7.6 (f) Bonus points will apply to the Heaslip Ladies Challenge Trophy and will be awarded as per 1.6.3 (f) with 3 bonus points awarded to the scoring outlined in 1.7.6 (d) at the two bonus points scoring rounds as per 1.5.2 above.

1.7.6 (g) Ties will be resolved as per 1.6.4 above.

1.7.6 (H.1) An index of performance is calculated based on each driver's performance relative to the events Fastest Time of the Day (FTD) in each of the previous 3 championship rounds in which the driver/car combination has competed. (This can go as far back as 5 years if required) The basis for using FTD as the benchmark is that it is a reasonably constant level of performance on every event. This index of performance then evolves over the year and is based on the final results of the last 3 rounds at which the driver competed in the same car/ driver combination. All calculations are based on 2 decimal places ie 0.001.7.6

1.7.6 (H2) The Heaslip Ladies Challenge Trophy scoring system is calculated and maintained by McAleer Timekeeping and the index of performance for the competitors at an event are calculated and issued by McAleer Timekeeping on the morning of the event. It is important that competitors fully describe the car on the entry form and that this description is also in the results, otherwise the administrator has no way of knowing for sure what car was being driven.

1.7.6 (H.3). So here's an example of how the timekeepers calculate the index of performance for a competitor that competed 2019 in rounds 1, 3, & 7:

Event	FTD	COMPETITOR TIME	FTD ÷ Competitor Time
Round 1	42.94	58.30	0.74
Round 3	33.12	43.19	0.77
Round 7	48.57	68.91	0.70
			Average above = 0.72

1.7.6 (H4) So at the next event the competitor's fastest time is multiplied by 0.72 to get the index of performance which is then used by the timekeepers to give the final corrected times as per example below

Driver	ftd	Competitor time	Competitor ave	corrected time	Ladies position
1	97.62	181.12	0.65	117.73	2
2	97.62	172.59	0.68	117.36	1
3	97.62	164.81	0.72	118.66	3

1.7.6 (H. 5). A new driver/car combinations will compete off an initial index of performance of 1.00 on their first event as they have no history. This applies to regular competitors not competing in their usual car as well as first-timers, drivers who have changed class in their existing car, or who have made significant modification to their car. At their next round they will use an index of performance based on their first event. If this occurs on a two event weekend then the timekeepers must calculate the index of performance for day 2 based on the day 1 result.

1.7.6 (H.6). The index of performance will not be recalculated during a weekend event and will apply on day 1 and day 2. The exception is new driver/car combinations where a new index of performance will be calculated for the 2nd day as detailed in 1.7.6 (H.5)

1.7.6 (H.7). In order to ensure fairness for competitors any calculated factor which varies by 0.05 from their previous average factor (excluding the first 3 rounds for any lady defined in 1.7.6 (H4) above) will not be counted so that no competitor is penalised over the next events by having an accident or mechanical issue.

1.7.6 (H8) Records will be maintained for the previous 5 championship years prior to the start of the current year. Driver/car combinations that have not competed in the previous 5 years must use the new driver/car index of performance if they return.
